Carfax and CJM Racing Together Again at MIS

Mooreville, NC (August 13, 2008) – Carfax and CJM Racing will team up for the second year in a row at the upcoming Carfax 250 at Michigan International Speedway on Aug. 16. Carfax, along with America's Incredible Pizza Company, will sponsor the No. 11 entry driven by Jason Keller in the NASCAR Nationwide Series race.

Carfax has become a fixture at Michigan International Speedway for the last three years as title sponsor of the Nationwide Series race. In addition, the race marks the second consecutive year that Carfax will be predominately displayed on the hood of the No. 11 Chevrolet Monte Carlo.

"Carfax and CJM Racing thrilled NASCAR fans at last year's Carfax 250 with a top-25 finish," said Larry Gamache, communications director at Carfax. "Continuing our relationship with CJM is a great way to expand our presence in the sport and reach the millions who will be watching this weekend. We're excited to have Jason competing again under the Carfax brand and wish him all the best for a stellar performance."

"CJM Racing is excited to have Carfax on board with us again this year in Michigan," stated Tony Mullet, co-owner of CJM Racing. "We've enjoyed a great relationship with Carfax and are proud to represent them out on the track."

Carfax started with a vision - to be the leading source of vehicle history information for buyers and sellers of used cars. Today, carfax.com is the fourth most visited Web site that consumers turn to for vehicle information and more than 32,000 dealers subscribe to Carfax. Millions of free Carfax Reports are available from subscribing dealers for cars listed on AutoTrader.com, cars.com, AutoMart.com, Yahoo! Autos and other leading online marketplaces.

Look for the No. 11 Carfax/America's Incredible Pizza Company Chevrolet in the Irish Hills of Michigan this Saturday, August 16. The Carfax 250 will air live on ESPN2 at 3:00 pm (EST).
